Dear Sir:

I thank you very much for your kind letter of the 2d inst., and the information contained therein.

I have just received a letter, giving the following as the rates paid for the one-cent and five-cent blanks:

$19.94 for the one-cent pieces;
$31.94 for the five-cent pieces.

We could undoubtedly meet these rates, should it become advisable to use aluminum as a coin--that is, we could furnish the same number of blanks at the same price as the rate you are now paying for them, for both the one-cent and the five-cent pieces. The cost of coining them would be no more than the material now used in the one-cent and the five-cent pieces.

I note that a mistake was made in the regiment you command. My stenographer informs me that she corrected this matter in the previous letter from the Report of the Adjutant General of
